Just reminding everyone to check out my new book "Faces Behind the Mask." It can be found on Amazon or Sinseer Publishing.com It's classified as a fiction book but 80% is based on actual events from my life. Here's an excerpt from the book jacket, if it peaks your interest; look it up. "When you look in the mirror, what's really behind your mask? What would you do if you had a second chance to live a different life?

Diamond, a former Marine Sniper who gets sent to prison for a second time seems to attract trouble. Not only does he have to watch his back from the C/O's but it seems everywhere he turns there is somebody who wants to test him. He's on borrowed time until he has to fight for his life.

Karsten, the leader of the notorious French Foreign Legion unit known as the Wolfpack has problems of his own. he is in a constant battle to keep his men alive and out of jail. Not an easy task when your superiors want to see you fail.

Daryl finally meets the woman of his dreams, but like everything in life, she comes with a price that many will never pay.

Go inside the minds of three minds and come out asking yourself, who you really are."

Also coming later this year, my second novel called "The World Need Villians."
